

Obtaining a Spoken Foreign Language Court Interpreter for Court Proceedings – Courts

This chart applies ONLY to court proceedings in which the North Carolina Judicial Branch currently provides an interpreter at State expense: Magistrates: All proceedings before the magistrate, including criminal proceedings, small claims matters, summary ejection, and other proceedings Clerk of Superior Court: All proceedings before the clerk of superior court, including estates, foreclosures, name changes, and other proceedings District Court: All criminal proceedings, all civil proceedings in district court, including but not limited to: General civil proceedings, Chapter 50B (domestic violence protective order) court proceedings, Chapter 50C (civil no-contact order) court proceedings, Chapter 50D (permanent civil no-contact order) court proceedings, child custody and child support court proceedings, juvenile court proceedings, incompetency proceedings, Chapter 122C civil commitment proceedings, appeals from magistrate decisions, appeals from decisions by the clerk of superior court, child custody and visitation mediation pursuant to G.S. 7A-494, and permanency mediation pursuant to G. S. 7B-202 Superior Court: All criminal proceedings, eminent domain proceedings, judicial foreclosure proceedings and other proceedings impacting housing, appeals from decisions by the clerk of superior court, including nonjudicial foreclosures and eminent domain proceedings, and appeals from district court proceedings
Spanish Court Interpreter	Submit a Request for Spoken Foreign Language Court Interpreter at least 10 business days prior to the scheduled proceeding, or as soon as the proceeding is placed on the court calendar. Requests should be submitted electronically to the Language Access Coordinator (LAC) from the website at http://www.nccourts.org/LanguageAccess .
Language Other Than Spanish (LOTS) Court Interpreter	Submit a Request for Spoken Foreign Language Court Interpreter at least 10 business days prior to the scheduled proceeding, or as soon as the proceeding is placed on the court calendar. Requests should be submitted electronically to the LAC and OLAS from the website at http://www.nccourts.org/LanguageAccess .
IMPORTANT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Failure to provide sufficient time to secure a qualified interpreter likely will result in a delay or postponement of the court proceeding if a qualified interpreter is not available.</li> <li>➤ Once services are requested, if it is determined before the court date that the case will not go forward as scheduled, please notify the local Language Access Coordinator so services can be cancelled in a timely manner (no less than 24 hours) to avoid unnecessary cancellation charges.</li> </ul>

For court proceedings not currently covered at State expense, parties in interest must provide a qualified court interpreter at the parties' expense.

TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL SUBMISSION OF YOUR REQUEST: The easiest way to use the form is to download a fresh copy to your computer, fill it out with the latest version of Adobe Reader and click the submit button at the bottom of the form. After clicking the submit button, follow the instructions to email the form. If Adobe Reader software is not already installed on your computer, download the most recent version of the free Adobe Reader software. If you use a web browser to fill out the form, you may need to reconfigure your browser to work with Adobe Reader. Adobe offers guidelines for resolving some browser issues at <https://helpx.adobe.com/acrobat/kb/pdf-browser-plugin-configuration.html>. See also, Help for Windows 10 users, Help for Opera users, and Help for Chrome users.