

Ten Rules of Court Attendance

1. Please arrive at court on time.
2. Go to court even if you are late, because an order for arrest may be issued for you if you do not attend.
3. Please wear appropriate attire.
4. Please be quiet and do not talk in the courtroom.
5. Do not take advice from anyone other than a court official or your attorney. Interpreters cannot give you legal advice.
6. Do not pay anyone until a court official directs you to do so.
7. Make payments directly to the Clerk's office when you receive your cost bill.
8. Find out from the Clerk's office if your interpreter was paid for by the State or if you are responsible for payment.
9. Make copies of anything you give the court and keep all receipts for any payments you make.
10. Posting a bond does not mean that you do not have to return to court. A bond merely assures the court that you will return on your court date.

Ten Rules of Court Attendance

1. Please arrive at court on time.
2. Go to court even if you are late, because an order for arrest may be issued for you if you do not attend.
3. Please wear appropriate attire.
4. Please be quiet and do not talk in the courtroom.
5. Do not take advice from anyone other than a court official or your attorney. Interpreters cannot give you legal advice.
6. Do not pay anyone until a court official directs you to do so.
7. Make payments directly to the Clerk's office when you receive your cost bill.
8. Find out from the Clerk's office if your interpreter was paid for by the State or if you are responsible for payment.
9. Make copies of anything you give the court and keep all receipts for any payments you make.
10. Posting a bond does not mean that you do not have to return to court. A bond merely assures the court that you will return on your court date.

Ten Rules of Court Attendance

1. Please arrive at court on time.
2. Go to court even if you are late, because an order for arrest may be issued for you if you do not attend.
3. Please wear appropriate attire.
4. Please be quiet and do not talk in the courtroom.
5. Do not take advice from anyone other than a court official or your attorney. Interpreters cannot give you legal advice.
6. Do not pay anyone until a court official directs you to do so.
7. Make payments directly to the Clerk's office when you receive your cost bill.
8. Find out from the Clerk's office if your interpreter was paid for by the State or if you are responsible for payment.
9. Make copies of anything you give the court and keep all receipts for any payments you make.
10. Posting a bond does not mean that you do not have to return to court. A bond merely assures the court that you will return on your court date.